In brief

Sentence suspended again for man guilty of child sex abuse

A Yakima man has again received a suspended prison sentence after being convicted a third time for sexually abusing children.

Michael Hicks, 21, was given a suspended sentence Thursday for committing indecent liberties in an incident that came to light after he had been convicted last year on two charges of child molestation.

In the 1990 convictions, Hicks was found guilty of molesting two foster children who were staying in his parents' home last year. A third charge — of allegedly raping a 6-year-old girl who visited his home — was dismissed.

He pleaded guilty to second-degree and third-degree child molestation charges in November, and his 20-month prison sentence was suspended.

Under a special sentencing option for first-time sex offenders, Hicks was allowed to enter a two-year outpatient treatment regimen instead of serving his prison sentence on the two charges. If a defendant re-offends, he or she can be ordered to serve the prison sentence.

But the child molestations, authorities learned later, were not his first offense.

An earlier incident of committing indecent liberties in 1987 did not come to light until recently and a charge was filed this summer, Deputy Prosecutor Ruth Reukauf said.

On Thursday, visiting Pacific County Superior Court Judge Joel Penoyar imposed a 28-month jail term but suspended the sentence.

The judge questioned whether it is legal for a person convicted of child molestation to again receive the suspended sentence intended for first-time offenders. But the judge agreed to impose the sentence when Reukauf said she did not object.

Reukauf said Hicks has been cooperative in his treatment program and passes lie detector tests used to ensure compliance.

Hicks' attorney, August Hahn, said it does not make sense to kick his client out of treatment and into prison for an incident that occurred before his previous convictions.

Although Penoyar suspended the 28-month prison term, he ordered Hicks to undergo an additional two years of treatment, for a total of four years. If he re-offends, he could be ordered to serve the earlier 20-month prison sentence and the later 28-month term consecutively.

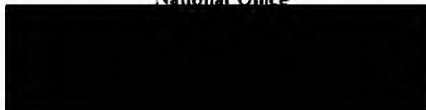

Hicks' November 1990 conviction was for molesting 13-year-old and 15-year-old foster children between December 1989 and May 1990. His later conviction was for indecent liberties he committed with a 10-year-old girl in 1987.

Dear Tom:

A year ago you sent us an Ineligible Volunteer Record Sheet asking that Mr. Hicks be placed on our file. You also indicated that he had been arrested for child abuse.

We have not heard from you since that time even though we have written on several occasions. We need to know whether this was child sexual abuse, physical abuse, or mental abuse. Newspaper clippings, court records, or statements from individuals would help to confirm this.

We would also like to know if there has been any legal action and whether it has been completed. We need newspaper clippings or court records substantiating that action.

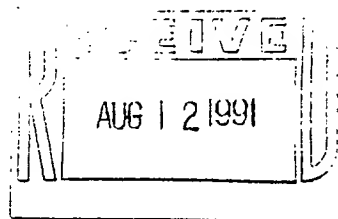

Thanks for your help in completing this file, so that we can protect the youth of America.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

Dear Tom:

I know we are both interested in protecting the youth of America. In July you sent us a record sheet indicating that the above named individual had been arrested for child abuse.

I have written on two different occasions asking for more information concerning this. We must have statements from individuals, newspaper clippings, or court records indicating the problem that now exists.

We would also like to have the outcome of the legal action if this has been completed. This information is necessary if we are to protect youth members across the county, and be able to refuse registration in other councils.

Thanks for your help in completing this file.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

Dear Tom:

We appreciate the Ineligible Volunteer Record Sheet which you sent us in July, however, we have not heard from you since that time.

We would like more information concerning the arrest for child abuse. Please give us details as to what this involved.

We would also like to know if the legal action has now been completed. If so, we would like copies of court records or newspaper clippings documenting what has occurred. The sentencing would be most helpful for our file.

Please help us complete this file and protect the youth of America.

Sincerely,

Dear Tom:

We appreciate your Ineligible Volunteer Record Sheet concerning the above named individual. We still would like to have the race of this individual, so we can use this in the identification process.

You indicate he had been arrested for child abuse. We would like newspaper clippings, court records, statements from individuals, or other information which would substantiate this. This is most necessary for our file should we have to refuse registration in some other part of the country. Please give us any material you can, so we can review this and determine if this is enough substantiation for our files.

Sincerely,
